[AS AMENDED BY THE COMMITTEE]

To amend an Act made in the forty-sixth year of His present Majesty, for enabling His Majesty to accept the Services of Volunteers from the Militia of Ireland.

Note—The Figures in the Margin denote the Number of the Folios in the written Copy.

1 WHEREAS by an Act made in the forty-sixth year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to enable His Majesty "to accept the services of Volunteers from the Militia of Ireland "under certain restrictions;" it was Enacted, That within Twelve Calendar Months after the twenty-fourth day of July in every year, while the said Militia should be augmented under the provisions of an Act made in the forty-fourth year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act "for empowering his Majesty to direct the augmentation of his Militia "Forces in Ireland, to an extent therein limited," it should be lawful for His Majesty from time to time to direct Regiments of the Line, or of the Royal Marines, to receive Volunteers from the Militia Forces of Ireland, and that it should be lawful for the Private Men in the said Militia from time to time to enlist into such Regiments under the said Act, subject to the regulations and restrictions in the said Act mentioned:

Preamble: 46 G. III. c. 124. 44 G. III. c. 33.

And whereas it is expedient that Provision should be made for more effectually carrying the said Act into execution from time to time;

Be it therefore Enacted, by the KING's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much and such part of the said recited Act as confines the time of such enlisting in each year to the period of Ten days next ensuing the time when the terms of such enlisting shall be explained 2 and made known to his Men by the Commanding Officer of any Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of Militia, pursuant to directions received by him for such enlisting, or to the further period of Ten Days next succeeding such first mentioned Ten Days, shall be and the same is and are hereby repealed.

So much of 46 G. III. c. 124. s. 2, 3, as confines Time of annually enlisting to Ten Days and Ten Days further, repealed.

Commanding Officer shall appoint Six separate periods of Three Days each, between twenty-fourth August and twenty-fourth February, in which such Enlistment shall take place.

And be it further Enacted, That whenever at any time after the twenty-fourth day of July in any year the Commanding Officer of any Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of the Militia of Ireland, shall have received His Majesty's directions with respect to such Volunteering as aforesaid, signified in manner in the said recited Act of the forty-sixth year mentioned, and shall have explained to the Private Men of such Regiment, Battalion, or Corps, the form of enlisting in such manner as in and by the said recited Act is ordered and directed, it shall be lawful for the said Commanding Officer, and he is hereby authorized, empowered and required to appoint a period of Three successive days, during which such Enlistment shall take place; and in case the whole number of Men allowed to enlist from such Regiment, Battalion or Corps, in any one year, in pursuance of the provisions of the said recited Act of the forty-sixth year, shall not voluntarily declare their intention of enlisting within such space of Three days, then to appoint a further period of Three days for such enlisting, and so in like manner to appoint Six such periods of Three days each if necessary, during which such Enlistment shall take place under the said recited Acts: Provided always, That Ten days notice shall from time to time be given by the Commanding Officer to the 3
Regiment, Battalion or Corps, of the several days or periods so to be appointed for enlisting, previous to each such period; and that there shall be an interval of Fourteen days at least between each such period of Three days; and that all the said several periods of Three days shall be between the twenty-fourth day of August in each year, and the twenty-fourth day of February in the year following.

Militia Men may enlist at said Periods under Provisions of Act 46 G. III. c. 124.

And be it further Enacted, That if at any of the said periods so to be appointed as aforesaid any Private Militia Man of such Regiment, Battalion or Corps, who under the Provisions of the said recited Act of the forty-sixth year is allowed to enlist, shall voluntarily declare his intention of enlisting pursuant to the said Act, it shall be lawful for the Commanding Officer to discharge him from the said Militia; and such Private Militia Man shall be enlisted and attested in the Regiment or Corps into which he shall have declared his intention to enlist, and shall be entitled to Bounty accordingly, in such manner, and under such Rules, Regulations, Provisions, and Directions in all respects as are mentioned, contained, and specified in the said recited Act, except so far as the same is altered or amended by this Act.

When the whole Number allowed to Volunteer are discharged, no further time for enlisting shall be appointed— 42 G. III. c. 124. s. 7.

Provided always, and be it Enacted, That in case the whole number of Men allowed to enlist from any Regiment, Battalion or Corps, in any one year, under the Provisions of the said recited Act of the forty-sixth year, shall have actually declared their intention of enlisting under the said recited Act, within the first or any subsequent period of Three days to be appointed as 4 aforesaid, it shall not be lawful for the Commanding Officer to appoint any further or other such period for such Enlistment; and that nothing in this Act contained shall extend to authorize the discharging from any Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of the said Militia any greater number of Men than in the proportion of fifteen Men for every Company in any one year, pursuant to the Provisions of the said recited Act.

Officers of the Line shall not come within Ten Miles of Militia Regiment while Volunteering.

Provided also, and be it Enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any commissioned Officer or non-commissioned Officer of or belonging to any Regiment of the Line, or the Royal Marines, which shall be authorized or directed to receive Volunteers from any Regiment, Corps, or Battalion of the said Militia, to be within Ten miles of the Quarters of such Regiment, Corps, or Battalion of Militia, at any time during the respective periods
